CATECHETICAL MINISTRY AND UPCOMING PARISH EVENTS

On Sun-12th we will begin registration for our Religious Education classes in the fall. day, June

We will begin classes on September 6th, 2016 and continue until April 4th, 2017. The faith formation classes that our parish provides your child(ren) will help them learn more about our Catholic faith because of their participation in the weekly sessions. It will help them access their inner spiritual life, and enable them to see why our faith in Jesus is so important to convey it to others, to give witness to their faith. Even though you, the parents, are the first teachers of your children in ways of faith, we want to support you through the religious education classes.

Please consider signing your children up for our CREATE Classes. Questions, call Joann Maier at 408-997-4808.

Join us for the 5:30 p.m. Mass this evening... Watch for e-mails and announcements about upcoming X-Static events

HOPE AND FORGIVENESS

There were some interesting conceptions of sin prevalent in the time of the Hebrew scriptures. There was the belief that God punished sin immediately. Those who suffered disease or misfortune were, therefore, sinners getting their due from the Almighty.

Today's first reading hints at another kind of God. When David admits his sin, Nathan declares, "The LORD on his part has forgiven your sin" (2 Samuel 12:13b). Here was not a vengeful God but a merciful God. What good news that must have been to David and those who, like him, could be honest enough to admit their sinfulness!

Jesus is the good news of God's mercy and forgiveness incarnate. Without Jesus, perhaps the good news would have been too good to believe, too difficult to imagine. But there he is in today's Gospel, the God-man, forgiving a sinner and declaring that she is forgiven because of her great love.

There is hope, then, for the rest of us sinners, if only we love enough!

PROFLIGATE?

I'd rather be a beggar and spend my last dollar like a king, than be a king and spend my money like a beggar.

—Robert G. Ingersoll

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Last week's "Treasure" no doubt raised an eyebrow or two with the image of the deacons scurrying through the streets of Rome, or perhaps galloping on horseback, with fragments of eucharistic bread from the bishop's liturgy. These would be dropped into the chalice at outlying celebrations, presided over by presbyters, to express unity with the bishop, and perhaps also to remind the presbyters that they were not free agents. The Council of Laodicea forbade the custom of the fermentum in the year 348. Generally, one of the rules of interpreting law is that people don't make laws about things that aren't happening. So, by mid-fourth century, we have an important clue that what had once been a Roman custom had become widespread.

Interestingly, when the Church of England (and its related bodies) went through a liturgical renewal in the mid-nineteenth century, they reclaimed this custom from the mists of history. Today, it is the custom in some Anglican dioceses for a fragment of the host from the bishop's Holy Week liturgy (what we call the Chrism Mass) to be carried to every parish. On "Maundy Thursday" (our Holy Thursday), the fragment is dropped into the chalice to signify the parish's communion with the bishop. This modern revival of the fermentum is different from the "co-mingling" action we are used to, in which a fragment of the consecrated bread is dropped into the chalice just before Communion.

Saint Anthony of Padua

June 13th is the feast of our patron saint, Saint Anthony of Padua. He was a Portuguese Catholic Priest that lived between 1195 to 1231. After his death, he was quickly canonized by Pope Gregory IX in 1232.

Saint Anthony is known as the finder of lost items. When an object is lost, say a sincere prayer to Saint Anthony, asking for help in locating the lost item!

Saint Anthony Outreach & Social Concerns Summer Parish Activities

Payless Shoe Gift Cards

Starting this month, the Outreach Committee will begin asking for donations for the "Back to School Shoe Drive" for the Children at the Sobrato Family Center. They were so thankful for our help last year, they asked us to come back. Children constantly outgrow shoes! We will be accepting $30 donations to purchase shoe gift cards for the families to make the purchases on their own. We will also accept any $30 Payless Gift Cards from Parishioners who may wish to bring them to the Outreach Committee at church. Later in July, Outreach will host a Summer Fun Party and Barbecue for the families at the Center and distribute the cards, at that time.

Backpack Drive

In July, Social Concerns will provide more specific information in the bulletin and Parish Update about the backpacks and school supplies. A list of needed supplies for the children attending Our Lady of Guadalupe Homework Center will be provided. Last year was the first time the students had these items for their studies. The children and their parents were so grateful. The collection will begin in early August. Any donations or purchased supplies from "Back to School" sales will be greatly appreciated.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

Today we celebrate the Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time and tomorrow we celebrate the patronal feast of our parish, Saint Anthony of Padua. Clearly we come to the Eucharist each Sunday to be fed by the Body and Blood of Christ, sustained by this meal that is the “source and summit” of our faith, our very life in the Lord. So, while we gather after Masses for a picnic, share a meal and conversation, watch young people engage in games, you might ask: Who is our patron saint?

Who is Saint Anthony? Some of you may be very familiar with his life, for those who are not familiar with his life I will give you a brief overview from the Lives of the Saints. Saint Anthony was born in Lisbon, Portugal in 1195. As a very young man he decided to join the Canons Regular of Saint Augustine, but shortly after ordination to the priesthood, transferred to the Friars Minor (Franciscans) to devote himself to spreading the faith among African peoples. Due to an illness he was not able to pursue that dream. He returned to Italy where he spent much of his time in prayer, reading the scriptures and doing menial tasks. He had his greatest success, however, preaching in France and Italy and converting heretics. He was the first member of the Franciscans to teach theology to his brethren. His sermons are notable for their learning and gentleness. He died at Arcella, Italy on June 13, 1231.

From an excerpt of one of his sermons he preached these words on the feast of Pentecost: “The man who is filled with the Holy Spirit speaks in different languages. These different languages are different ways of witnessing to Christ, such as humility, poverty, patience and obedience; we speak in those languages when we reveal in ourselves these virtues to others. Actions speak louder than words; let your words teach and your actions speak. We are full of words but empty of actions...”

May our actions performed in faith, speak louder than our words, inviting others into the faith community, expanding our faith community to our friends and neighbors.

We also know that Saint Anthony is known as a “ready helper in time of need.” Even to the extent of finding objects that are lost around the house or home. Some say, “Tony, Tony, turn around there is something lost that needs to be found.” He also had a special love for the poor. Anthony was a preacher, teacher, healer and servant. We give thanks for his life, may his example inspire us to live our lives of faith. Happy Summer!

Blessings,

Father Larry

SAINT ANTHONY PARISH CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

COMMITTEE Reflection

Quotes for

“We human beings are not only the beneficiaries but also the stewards of other creatures. Thanks to our bodies, God has joined us so closely to the world around us that we can feel the desertification of the soil almost as a physical ailment, and the extinction of a species as a painful disfigurement. Let us not leave in our wake a swath of destruction and death which will affect our own lives and those of future generations.”

Pope Francis

Family summer holidays are just around the corner, so while you are planning your vacations or summer trips, please plan on continuing your stewardship, weekly or monthly commitment to support the parish. Traditionally, there is a dip in donations over the summer months when people are away.

However, the church expenses continue. Please consider setting up an online giving account, if you haven't already done so, so that you can continue to donate to the church even when you are not present. Or, consider sending in your contributions before you leave for any length of time. This would assist us greatly.

Thank you or your support!
